

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
WACO DIVISION

SONOS, INC.,
Plaintiff

No. 6:20-cv-881-ADA

v.

GOOGLE LLC,
Defendant

GOOGLE LLC'S MOTION TO EXPEDITE THE BRIEFING SCHEDULE ON ITS MOTION TO STAY CLAIM CONSTRUCTION PROCEEDINGS PENDING
RESOLUTION OF GOOGLE'S MANDAMUS PETITION

Defendant Google LLC (“Google”) respectfully requests an expedited briefing schedule on its Motion to Stay (the “Motion”). Specifically, Google respectfully requests that the Court set a briefing schedule in which Sonos’s opposition to Google’s Motion is due by 10 a.m. Central Time on Thursday, August 5, 2021. In an effort to expedite a ruling on this Motion and avoid burdening the Court with additional filings, Google agrees to waive its Reply and does not request a hearing.

As set forth in Google’s brief in support of its Motion, the Court should stay claim construction proceedings, including the upcoming Markman hearing, until the Federal Circuit has had an opportunity to rule on Google’s mandamus Petition to be filed shortly. Absent a stay, Google will be deprived the opportunity to seek meaningful appellate review prior to the Markman hearing. While this Court held that the forum selection clause is inapplicable here, Google should have the opportunity to raise this issue with the Federal Circuit and thereby ensure that there are no substantive rulings from a potentially improper venue, particularly with respect to claim construction proceedings which are among the most important events in the case.

There is good cause to expedite the briefing on Google’s Motion. The Court issued its order denying Google’s transfer motion on August 2, 2021, and Google expeditiously and diligently filed its Motion the following day. Nevertheless, because the Court has scheduled the Markman hearing in this matter for August 10, 2021, without an expedited briefing schedule, the Markman hearing will proceed before Google can obtain a ruling on its Motion. Google thus respectfully requests that this Court order the briefing schedule outlined above so that the Court can resolve the Motion in advance of the Markman hearing.

DATED: August 3, 2021

Respectfully submitted,
